RESOLUTION TO APPOINT COUNTY ADJUSTER FOR THE COUNTY OF SALEM

WHEREAS, N.J.S.A. 30:4-34 and 44:4-1 prescribe duties concerning the care and support of the poor and mentally ill by a County Adjuster position of county government; and

WHEREAS, Michael M. Mulligan, Esq., has previously served and shall serve this year as County Counsel and a County Solicitor, which authorizes the Board of Chosen Freeholders to designate him as County Adjuster according to N.J.S.A. 30:4-34;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Chosen Freeholders of the County of Salem that Michael M. Mulligan, Esq., a person who presently serves as a solicitor for the County, be appointed to the executive office of Salem County Adjuster, according to N.J.S.A. 30:4-34, and N.J.S.A. 44:4-1, for a term commencing nunc pro tunc January 1, 2019, until his successor is appointed and qualified. In consideration of his dual role as a county solicitor and county adjuster an additional annual salary for Adjuster duties of $5,000.00 shall be paid in consideration of the economies of scale advantages of merging the two executive employment positions in County government.
