Freeholder Vanderslice moved for the adoption of these (17) seventeen resolutions, with Deputy Director Cross seconding his motion.

Freeholder Acton states that Resolution 2014-272 is for the Resurfacing of a parking lot, and Elsinboro will be repaying the County of Salem

Freeholder Timberman stated that she would like the Freeholder Board to vote on Resolutions 1-16 first and to separate the last Resolution from the full hand vote.

Freeholder Timberman wanted to know on Resolution 2014-265, why there were so many resignations from the Office of the Disabled.

Freeholder Acton stated that Catherine Johnston resigned due to health issues.

Freeholder Timberman stated there were 3 or 4 resignations this year already.

Kevin Crouch stated he would be more than happy to go back and get all the resignations from this year to see what the reasons were.

Freeholder Timberman stated that would be great and asked if Kevin could also look into at how many of the appointed Board members have a disability or a family member who is disabled, because she believes the original by-laws require a certain number of members to have either a disability or a family member with a disability to be serving on the Board.

Freeholder Acton said she would be looking into Freeholder Timberman’s request.

Freeholder Timberman wanted to know on Resolution 2014-273 why Charles Washington Jr., was taken off of the Pollution Control Financing Authority.

Freeholder Acton stated that Mr. Washington submitted some correspondence, and noted that he did not make quite a few meetings and stated that CFO Katie Coleman could give some more insight.

CFO Katie Coleman stated that he missed quite a bit of meetings without notice, and he was asked to either attend or resign.

Freeholder Timberman questioned who Marjorie Sperry is and any background information on her.

Freeholder Vanderslice stated she is from Quinton, and owns Salem County Recyclers, Inc.

Freeholder Timberman stated that was all the questions she had.

Deputy Director Cross moved for the adoption of Resolutions 2014-265 through 2014-280, with Freeholder Vanderslice seconding his motion. As there was no discussion, the motion for adoption of the foregoing resolutions carried a hand vote of 7/0.
Freeholder Laury made a motion to adopt Resolution R.2014-281, Freeholder Vanderslice seconds his motion.

Freeholder Bobbitt stated he was not in favor of this resolution and is very much against it, but like Director Acton mentioned with the One-Stop, once this resolution is passed, he will help with the committee to bring economic development into Salem County.

Freeholder Timberman reiterated that she, as well, is against this Resolution for the reasons that a cost-benefit analysis needs to be completed.

Freeholder Acton thanked all the volunteers on the Salem County Economic Development Council who’s very active and helping to move the county in forward in the right direction.

As there was no further discussion, the motion passes 4/3: Deputy Director Cross-for, Freeholder Laury-for, Freeholder Vanderslice-for, Freeholder Bobbitt-against, Freeholder Timberman-against, Freeholder Ware-against, Director Acton-for.

Freeholder Laury stated that it is a Pilot Program for a grant which can be utilized by each municipality.

As there was no discussion, the motion for adoption of the foregoing resolutions carried a hand vote of 7/0.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS
Freeholder Timberman questioned the Veterans Project to sell bricks to bring in revenue to the County and if a bank account has been set up, and also asked if this could be done in different areas to help raise money for the County.

CFO Katie Coleman stated that it can be offset, and since this is a onetime project, there is no need for a bank account, but for departments who wish to have a reoccurring project which helps bring in revenue would have to set up a trust fund/bank account.

Freeholder Acton stated the Veterans’ Project is part of the Beautification Project for the Veterans’ Cemetery, and bricks can be bought and memorialized and that Joseph Hannagan of Veterans’ Services has applications if anyone is interested.

NEW BUSINESS
Freeholder Laury stated that there is a good chance the County will be receiving a $225,000.00 grant funded from Mid-Atlantic, which will allow the buses that transport people from their towns to their place of employment to use County gas pumps.

Director Acton announced that the Salem County Facebook Page and the County Newsletter are updated frequently so please let people know about these useful resources so keep the public involved.

Director Acton also announced that on June 19 there will a groundbreaking expansion for Berkowitz in Oldmans Township at the Gateway Park at 3:30

Freeholder Vanderslice stated that 2 years ago, the County’s Bond Counsel and CFO were on a conference call.
Freeholder Vanderslice stated that things in the County were going to change, by stabilizing government, reduces spending, reduce debt, and increase services. Two years later, rating went up and credit ratings increased, everything that was said to be done, was done. This is a great thing for our County.

PUBLIC ANNOUNCEMENTS
Freeholder Ware mentioned it was the week of the Special Olympics at the College of New Jersey, Sami Cox participated along with Senator Sweeney’s daughter Lauren.

Freeholder Timberman stated the Pittsgrove MAPSA will meet at the Senior Center on June 19. It has been a great program and will be very beneficial for anyone to come out and join. She also mentioned the Bookmobile will be having live reenactments of people in history starting at 7PM; June 27 – William Penn, July 25 – Betsy Ross, September 26 – Sojourner Truth

PUBLIC COMMENT
Anyone wishing to speak please speak clearly and state your name and address for the record.

Each speaker will have TWO MINUTES to speak. The Clerk of the Board (COB) will keep track of the time for each speaker. When addressing questions concerning personnel issues with the County of Salem no names will be used at any time.

Christine Hoehn, Pennsville, asked about the cost of transportation for the Adult Services.
Freeholder Laury stated that there is no cost, and that it is funded by a grant.

Janice Sherman, thanked the Freeholders for opening up the Olde Courthouse for the Bus Tour through Salem County. She presented a glass sun catcher and a tour guide to the Board.

Freeholder Acton stated that Harold Smick, the County’s historian was thrilled and thanked Janice for her comment.

Martha Rodgers, Woodstown, stated that the Wawa construction corner in Woodstown looks great, but is still not satisfied with the way the traffic light works.
Freeholder Bobbitt stated that the intersection is a lot better than it used to be.
Freeholder Timberman stated that the original developer of Acme was supposed to widen the road, and after construction of the buildings, he never followed through. There are a lot of setbacks right now concerning the intersection.
Freeholder Laury stated that the intersection has improved, and suggested that Martha write a letter to the LD3 since she is still unhappy with the intersection.
Director Acton presented Martha with a card stating that all 7 Freeholders are extremely pleased with all her efforts and commitment in making Salem County a better place.

Martha stated she would write the letter and thanked the Board for their advice.

Warren Weiting, Alloway, congratulated the Freeholders for the One-Stop decision.
Charlie Hassler, Salem, mentioned the attempt at breaking the world record line dance starting at noon on Saturday June 21. He also stated that Salem Hancock's Bridge Road Entrance way looks great, and thanked the Board.
Doug Painter, Pilesgrove, wanted to take the opportunity to applaud the Freeholders for their efforts over the last 24 months on making some of the toughest decisions that had to be made to improve our Bond Ratings, and that good and positive things will continue to happen in our County.
Jean Jack, Woodstown, stated that maybe a 3-4 second delay on the traffic light may be better along with a left green arrow. Anything to make that intersection safer.
Director Acton thanked everyone for their comments and announced the next meeting will be held on July 16, 2014 at 7:30 PM at the Upper Pittsgrove Municipal Building located at 431 Route 77, Pole Tavern Circle, Elmer NJ. Workshop meeting will be held at 6:15pm.
